Graduation Day marks the end of one of your life's objectives and the beginning of your future career. You and your parents may indeed be proud of your achievement. However your graduation from high school is just the beginning of your future. The opportunities for a rich full life are before you, but your decisions and actions will determine your success or failure. Take advantage of all that is offered to you, try to live according to high ideals, consider the feelings of others, give according to your ability and so live a richer and more rewarding life.

Weymouth North's football team faced a severe challenge this year. The new school was left with a schedule of nine games with class "A" teams, six of which were rated in the top ten in the state. From the beginning the Maroons gave their supporters all they could ask for.

After four hard losses, the Maroons put it all together and came out winners defeating Waltham 16-6. No senior will forget the battle between Quincy and North. An undefeated team, looking for the championship, was lucky to come away with a 14-13 win. In the closing minutes of the game the Maroons had rallied to score a touchdown. Although they could have easily kicked the extra point for a tie, Weymouth North tried for victory and failed.

They did not, however, fail in the eyes of their fans. These are the reasons why the pride of North continues.

One of the most active organizations at Weymouth North is the Student Council. Led by Dave Noble, John' Wells, Carol Kelly, and Brian Coyne; this year is no exception. To raise money for scholarships, the Council sponsored a "Powder Puff" football game putting the Student Council and the Cheerleaders against the Pep Club. For Thanksgiving the Council members donated different items to make up a turkey dinner for a needy family in Weymouth. The Globe Santa once again collected money for less fortunate children. The Council is also engaged in the task of writing a new student handbook for North High.

Under the direction of Mrs. Magraw and Neal Steinkrauss, members strive to achieve the goal of their motto, "In giving we grow." Some of the committee's activities include work among the blind at Perkins School and at the YMCA, the "Big Brother, Big Sister," programs with visits to the Seach School by the Mentally Retarded Committee; the Elderly and Hospital Committee makes and delivers favors to area hospitals and nursing homes.

The Key Club, under the direction of Mr. Daly and this year's officers, Frank Niles, President; John Mulvaney, Vice-President; Martin Barnes, Secretary; and John Mullan, Treasurer, performs many service activities for the school. They passed out programs at football games, made donations to Thanksgiving baskets, participated in "People Need You" week, and made themselves available for any service that might have been requested. Fund raising projects included a book fair, selling souvenir programs on Thanksgiving, and the presentation of the annual Key Club-Faculty hockey game.

The building which houses the child care training center is perhaps the first in the nation to be constructed exclusively by vocational students. Weymouth had to develop its own plans and specifications. The course itself covers a new area of vocational training. The two year course was designed to train girls for a vocation in pre-school child care. There is a great need for well trained girls in this area.

The course is designed to develop a sense of responsibility and self-confidence. With local demands, the girls know that they are preparing for solid employment in an area which offers them great satisfactions and will be valuable in raising their own future families.

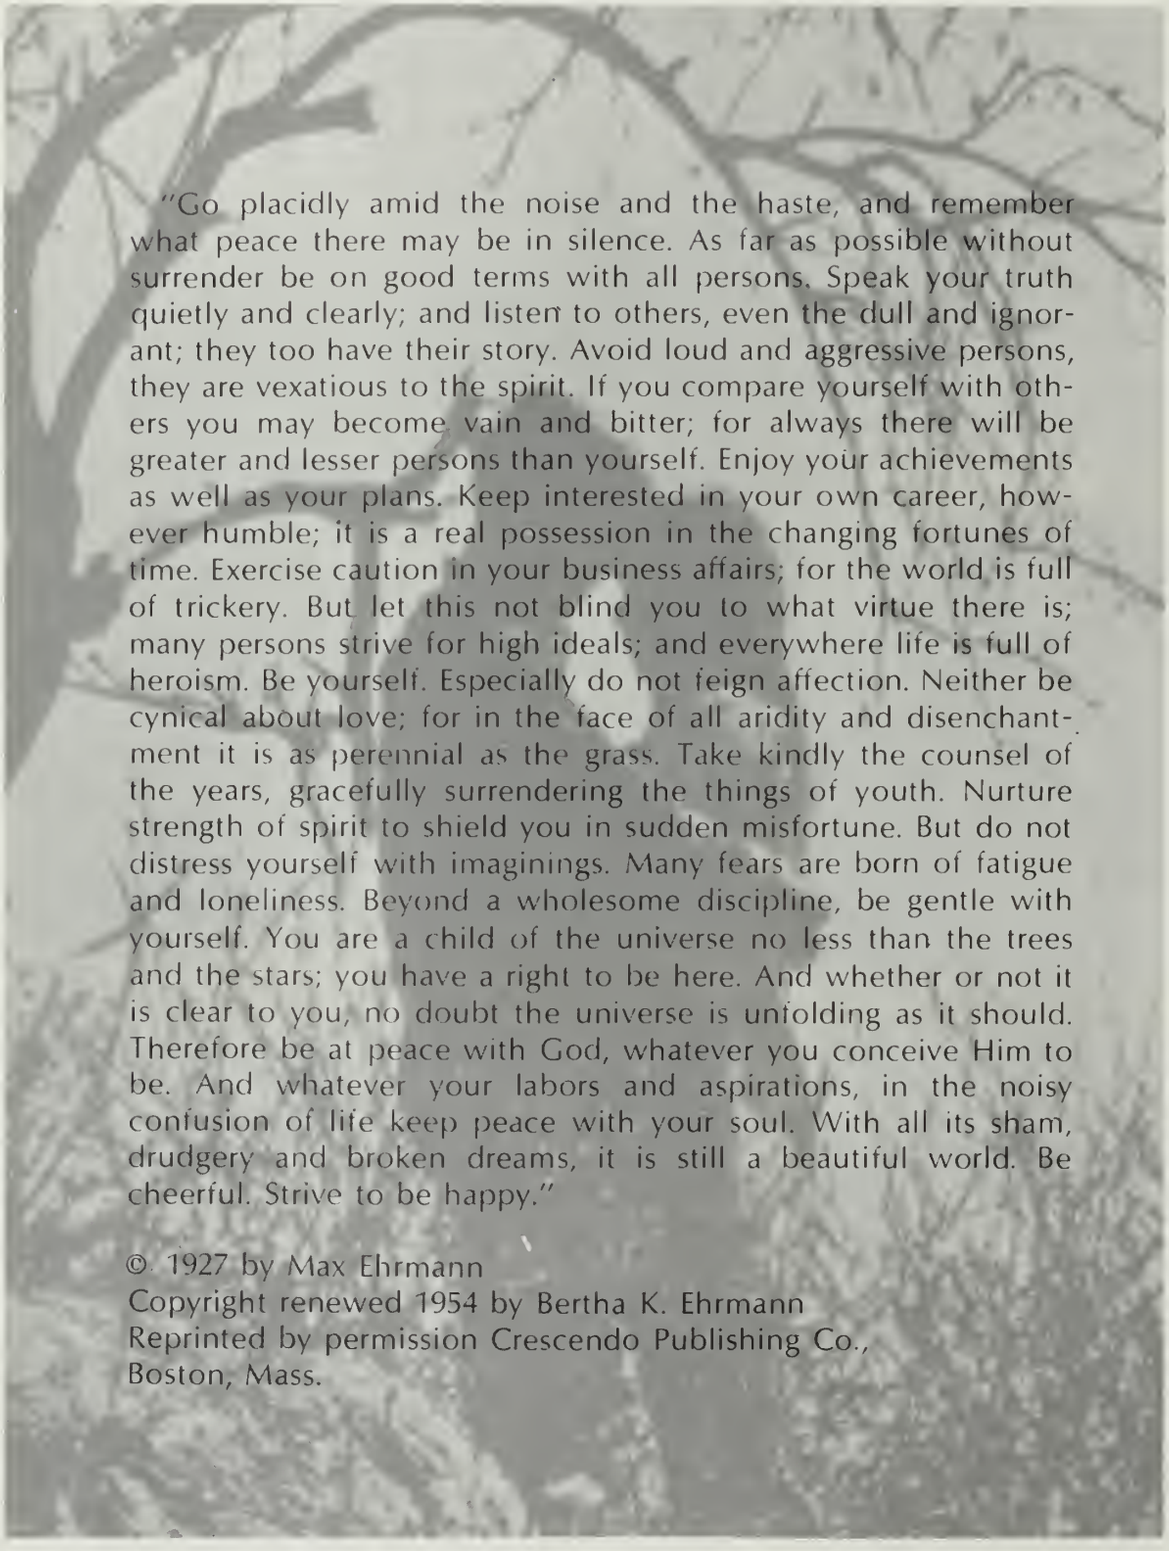
Disederata



"Go placidly amid the noise and the haste, and remember what peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexatious to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble; it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially do not feign affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the face of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass. Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive Him to be. And whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its sham, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful world. Be cheerful. Strive to be happy."
